On June 16, 2017, Renewable Energy Coalition moved the Idaho Public Utilities Commission (Commission), under Commission Rules of Procedure 19 and 43.03 and Idaho Bar Commission Rule (IBCR) 227, for an Order approving the limited admission, pro hac vice, of Irion Sanger in this matter. The Motion was signed and attested to by local counsel Gregory M. Adams of Boise, Idaho (Idaho State Bar License No. 7454).

In the Motion, Mr. Sanger certifies that he is an active member in good standing of the Oregon State Bar who maintains the regular practice of law in Oregon. He further declares that he is not an Idaho resident or licensed to practice law in Idaho.

Mr. Sanger and Mr. Adams certify that a copy of the Motion has been served on all other parties to this case, and that a copy of the Motion, accompanied by a $325 fee and certificate of good standing, have been submitted to the Idaho State Bar. Mr. Adams acknowledges that his attendance shall be required at all Commission proceedings in which Mr. Sanger appears, unless specifically excused by the Commission.

COMMISSION FINDINGS

The Commission has reviewed and considered the Motion and applicable rules, including IBCR 227 and Commission Rules of Procedure 19 and 43.03, IDAPA 31.01.01.019 and 043.03. Based on the filings of record and certified representations of Mr. Sanger and Mr. Adams, we find that reasonable grounds have been demonstrated to justify the granting of limited admission of Mr. Sanger as legal counsel for the Renewable Energy Coalition. We further find good reason to excuse the appearance of Mr. Adams in further proceedings in this docket unless needed by Mr. Sanger.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Commission has jurisdiction in this case and over this Motion pursuant to Idaho Code, Title 61, and the Commission’s Rules of Procedure, 31.01.01.000 et seq.

ORDER

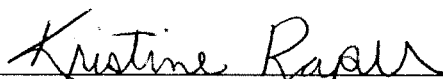

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion is granted; Mr. Sanger is hereby granted limited admission as legal counsel for the Renewable Energy Coalition.
