The next order of business was MATTERS IN PROGRESS:

5. Action Item: Michael Duval's October 15, 2024, Decision Memorandum re: In the Matter of Michael Ayers' Formal Complaint Against Ziplly Fiber of Idaho, LLC Case No. CTC-T-24-01.

Michael Duval presented the decision memorandum regarding Mr. Ayers formal complaint against Ziplly Fiber of Idaho, LLC. Mr. Duval informed the commission that Staff suggested a hearing might be necessary as Ayers plans to call witnesses. Additionally, staff highlighted several customers echoing concerns about the issue.

Commissioner Hammond felt it premature to organize a public or technical hearing without first obtaining Ziplly Fiber's written response. Commissioner Hammond stressed the importance of building a more developed record and it was deemed crucial before deciding on further actions, including the necessity of a public or technical hearing. The potential for hearings or other procedural steps will be reconsidered after the company's response.

Commissioner Anderson made a motion to first issue a summons to Zply Fiber for a formal response within 21 days before proceeding further. A vote was taken, and the motion passed unanimously.

Commissioner Anderson stated there was no further business before the Commission and the meeting was adjourned.
