Name of Utility Company: AVISTA

Comment: With a glut of natural gas, oil, solar, wind, and actually plenty of hydro power production, how in hell can the Idaho PUC justify Avista's rate increase in electricity and natural gas? Seriously? No, I mean --seriously?

If Avista can afford stadiums and to pay their CEO what it does, I really don't think the Idaho consumer should be held over the barrel for increased payments, when there is such a over abundance of energy available.

Merry Christmas
