Comment: "IDAHO, natural gas prices are down 50% over the year. AVISTA should not be asking for an increase, but a decrease . Hydro dams have been paid for decades ago and AVISTA is using and buying power made from Waters of the United States of America. It's AVISTA making a profit off of "our" waters. Thank you."

Comment: "Without any rate increase, AVISTA's investments to supply the unprecedented customer growth in their North Idaho coverage areas will certainly be recovered by the subsequent increase in revenue. Making ends meet in these times of historically high inflation is very difficult for working families and those of us on fixed income. AVISTA should not be allowed to modify their accounting system to "demonstrate" lower profit margins. Anything more than an increase to accommodate AVISTA's legitimate additional expenses is price gouging at a time when cost of living increases are diminishing the quality of life for nearly every American."
