On May 30, 2024, Idaho Power Company (“Company”), applied for approval of (1) the Second Amendment to its Special Contract with Brisbie, LLC (“Brisbie”); (2) the Third Amendment to its Special Contract with Micron Technology, Inc. (“Micron”); (3) updates to pricing elements in all Clean Energy Your Way (“CEYW”) Renewable Construction Agreements including the Brisbie and Micron Special Contracts and the city of Boise City’s CEYW Renewable Construction Agreement that are based on the Company’s 2023 Integrated Resource Plan (“IRP”); (4) associated modifications to Schedule 33— Brisbie, Schedule 26— Micron, and Schedule 62— CEYW Program (“Schedule 62”); and (5) a proposed method for updating prices contained in CEYW-Construction Program contracts that rely on IRP data.

On July 10, 2024, the Commission issued a Notice of Modified Procedure, setting public comment and Company reply deadlines. Order No. 36255. Commission Staff (“Staff”) filed the only comments.

On November 8, 2024, the Commission issued Order No. 36383 approving the amendments and updates to the contracts identified above using a 50th percentile forecast, instead of the Company’s proposed 70th percentile forecast. The Order also approved the associated modifications to the relevant tariff schedules. Additionally, the Company was ordered to submit, as a compliance filing, updated Tariff Schedules 26, 33, and 62 containing (1) the date and number of the Order; and (2) all changes to the tariffs resulting from Commission orders, including those issued in Case Nos. IPC-E-24-01 and IPC-E-24-18.

On November 26, 2024, the Company submitted a compliance filing with updates to Tariff Schedules 26, 33, and 62. This compliance filing was submitted in compliance with Order No. 36383.

During the Commission’s December 11, 2024, decision meeting, Staff presented a decision memorandum, indicating that it had reviewed the updates to Schedules 26, 33, and 62—confirming that the updates comply with Order No. 36383. Accordingly, Staff believed the submitted compliance filing satisfies the Order and recommended Commission approval of the updated Tariff Schedules 26, 33, and 62, as filed.
