NEWS RELEASE REMINDER: Customer hearing will be held Tuesday, April 18, on a Rocky Mountain Power application to change rates.

NEWS DIRECTORS, EDITORS: A release was sent out earlier in March announcing the customer hearing. There also was a customer workshop held in mid-March.

BOISE (April 14, 2023) – The Idaho Public Utilities Commission will host a customer hearing on Tuesday evening, April 18, in Idaho Falls to take formal testimony on a Rocky Mountain Power application to change its rates.

The utility, which serves approximately 86,500 customers in eastern Idaho, is asking for commission approval to change residential rates over a five-year transition period.

The hearing will start at 6:00 p.m. (MDT) at the Idaho Department of Fish and Game regional office in Idaho Falls, 4279 Commerce Cir. It will last until 9:00 p.m. or until all of the testimony has been submitted, whichever comes first. Those interested in listening only and not submitting testimony can call 1-415-655-0001 and enter meeting number 2464 260 4164.

Additional information on the application can be found at: puc.idaho.gov/case/Details/6946.
