On August 6, 2025, Rocky Mountain Power, a division of PacifiCorp, applied for approval of the 2026 PacifiCorp Inter-Jurisdictional Cost Allocation Protocol. The Company is proposing the 2026 Protocol to replace the 2020 PacifiCorp Inter-Jurisdictional Allocation Protocol, which was approved on April 22, 2020, and extended on November 2, 2023. See Order Nos. 34640 and 35984. The Company requests that a final order issue on its Application no later than December 31, 2025.

The Commission now issues this Notice of Application and sets deadlines by which interested persons may intervene.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the Company represents that it provides retail electric service to approximately two million customers across six western states, including Idaho.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the Company represents it has attempted to establish a cost-allocation method agreeable to state regulators across its service territory over the past few years.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the Company represents this resulted in adoption of the 2020 Protocol, which expires on December 31, 2025.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the Company represents that the 2020 Protocol was intended to serve as an interim cost-allocation methodology for use in rate filings from 2020 through 2025, during which time a long-term allocation method would be negotiated.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the Company represents that differing state energy policies are making it increasingly difficult for the Company to maintain a unified resource portfolio for all customers while meeting the specific legal requirements of each jurisdiction.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the Company represents that state regulators across its territory are unable to reach consensus on the terms of a long-term cost-allocation methodology before January 1, 2026.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the Company represents that the proposed 2026 Protocol is an initial step toward shifting from a cost-allocation method based on a single, system-wide resource portfolio to one that recognizes the need for state- or region-specific portfolios.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the Application and supporting documentation have been filed with the Commission and are available for public inspection during regular business hours at the Commission's office. These documents are also available on the Commission's website at www.puc.idaho.gov.
