IN THE IDAHO SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS

Sherry Cole)	Case No. 51148-2103
Petitioner, Appellant)	Motion of Lemine
Vs.)	and Dispute Agency Record
Idaho Public Utilities Commission)	PAC-E-23-12
Pacific Corp , dba Rocky Mountain Power) Respondents)

The only item that is settled are the Appellants evidence in Exhibits (1)(2)(3) and her public comments.

Based on the evidence and facts of this case, the omissions and falsehoods in the decisions not based on facts they had, and ignoring this the decisions and orders done by both Defendants and falsifying statements I cannot agree with the agency record as correct or settled , when it includes criminal activity and to slander the Appellant in their tribunal while allowing Rocky Mountain Power to retain the Appellants property.

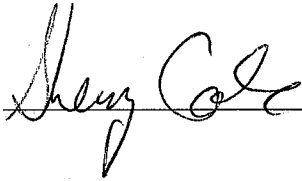

There are duplicates of orders and evidence along the exhibits of the perjured sworn affidavit of IPUC investigator Jon Krusk while his sworn affidavit should stay in agency record the exhibits that do not pertain the the case or the perjury are not needed , False claims of statements by Commission staff that are known to be untrue as will be seen in my brief This appears to be designed not only to get more money from the Appellant, but also be fastidious and confusing and no way to treat the court or the appellant.

Both defendants appear just to want to make plaintiff go away which was easily doable by providing the correct compensation and Rocky Mountain Power's attorney walked away from those negotiations.
