NEWS RELEASE: Commission schedules virtual workshop to share information on electric utility's proposed rate increase.

BOISE (Sept. 18, 2024) – Idaho Public Utilities Commission staff will hold a virtual, public workshop on Sept. 25 to share information on an application from Rocky Mountain Power to increase its rates.

The workshop will be Wednesday, Sept. 25, and will begin at 6:00 p.m. (MDT). Commission staff will provide an overview of Rocky Mountain Power's application, its proposed rate increase and the potential impact on customers. Commission staff will also be available to answer questions regarding the application.

Rocky Mountain Power is seeking commission approval to increase rates for the average residential customer by 17.9 percent, or about $19.90 on Jan. 1, 2025. The utility also is seeking commission approval to increase rates by 5.3 percent, or about $6.94 on Jan. 1, 2026. The commission can approve, deny or modify the utility's application.
