NEWS RELEASE: Telephonic public hearing scheduled for proposed asset transfer agreement between city of Idaho Falls and electric utility.

BOISE (Oct. 4, 2024) – The Idaho Public Utilities Commission is holding a telephonic public hearing in November to take testimony on a proposed asset transfer agreement between the city of Idaho Falls and Rocky Mountain Power.

If the agreement is approved by the commission, Rocky Mountain Power would transfer assets located in Idaho Falls to the city. The utility said the proposed agreement is in the public interest because it reduces service duplication while also compensating the utility.

The telephonic hearing will be Monday, Nov. 4, 2024, at 11:00 a.m. (MST). The hearing is being held to take testimony from members of the public and utility customers. Those wanting to submit testimony for the record can do so by calling 1-415-655-0001 and enter meeting number 2630 112 3561 when prompted.

The commission is accepting written comments on the proposed transfer until Oct. 31, 2024. Comments are required to be filed through the commission's website or by e-mail unless computer access is not available. To submit comments using the commission website, please visit puc.idaho.gov and click on the "Case Comment Form" link on the upper left side of the page. Please use case number PAC-E-24-11 when filling out the form. The commenter should also include their name and address. If using e-mail, comments are required to be sent to the commission secretary and the other parties at the e-mail addresses listed below. Commenters should include their name, address and case number PAC-E-24-11. If computer access is not available, comments can be mailed to the commission and the other parties at the addresses listed below. Those submitting comments through the mail are required to include their name, address and case number PAC-E-24-11.
