NEWS RELEASE: Commission is accepting written comments on investigation to determine if water utility should be regulated.

BOISE (Feb. 3, 2025) – The Idaho Public Utilities Commission is accepting written comments on an investigation to determine if the Meadows at West Mountain water utility should be regulated by the commission.

Meadows at West Mountain provides water to 214 connections in Valley County near Donnelly. The water utility is not currently regulated by the commission and does not have a certificate of public convenience and necessity. The certificate is a permit granted to a utility that authorizes it to provide service to a new area, enter into a new franchise agreement or build and operate a new facility.

The commission is accepting written comments until Feb. 20, 2025. Comments are required to be filed through the commission’s website or by e-mail unless computer access is not available. To comment using the website, please visit puc.idaho.gov and click on the “Case Comment Form” link on the upper left side of the page. Please use case number BPI-W-24-01 when filling out the form. Those submitting comments using e-mail are required to send them to the commission secretary and Meadows at West Mountain at the e-mail addresses listed below. Comments are required to include the commenter’s name, address and case number BPI-W-24-01. If computer access is not available, comments can be mailed to the commission and Meadows at West Mountain at the addresses listed below. Mailed comments are required to include the commenter’s name, address and case number BPI-W-24-01.
