NEWS RELEASE: Commission approves water utility's application to install backup well.

BOISE (June 6, 2024) – The Idaho Public Utilities Commission has approved an application from Falls Water Co., Inc. to install a backup well to serve customers within the utility's recently acquired Morning View Water Co. system.

After acquiring Morning View's system and reviewing it, Falls Water said a new backup well was needed to ensure sufficient water supply if a primary well failed.

The commission approved the utility's application after reviewing it.
