Public comment sought on proposed acquisition of two water utilities

BOISE (March 12, 2020) - The Idaho Public Utilities Commission is taking public comment through March 23 on an application from Gem State Water Company to acquire the Happy Valley Water System and the Bitterroot Water Co.

Gem State Water applied to the commission in November of 2019 to acquire the water business assets of Happy Valley and Bitterroot, as well as for the transfer of the certificates of public convenience and necessity for both utilities. They serve customers in Kootenai County.

Those wishing to submit comments via e-mail can do so by visiting the commission's homepage at www.puc.idaho.gov and clicking on the "Consumers" tab toward the top of the page. After clicking on the "Consumers" tab, click on the "Case Comment Form." When filling out the form, please enter GSW-W-19-01 in the Case Number field.
