READS:

Having reviewed the record, the Commission finds it reasonable to grant the IFHC and the Bench Intervenors' motions to withdraw. The IFHC said its participation in the case was no longer necessary. The Bench Intervenors indicated they would present public testimony at the public hearing instead of entering into a settlement agreement with other parties. We find these reasons sufficient to allow for withdrawal. Like other members of the public, the withdrawing parties will have an opportunity to be heard through the filing of written comments or by testifying at the April 21, 2021 telephonic customer hearing that has been scheduled in this case, or both.
