Please describe your comment briefly:

A 15% rate hike? Are you serious, we are in a Government collaps and you are going to raise our rates? Well were the blank were you when we needed our increase on our social security checks, I say, raise our social security checks to a measly 2-3 percent, which we didn't get for the last 2 years. How are we going to pay that kind of bill, when we have to money? Idaho is a farming state, not a big city, and we just don't have that kind of money to sink into a 15% increase. Just trying to stay on top of all of taxes, insurances, and rate increases, while my check keeps going down.
