I object to the increase that these new owners want. I hey knew the condition of this water company when they bought it. We are retired, and live mostly on our Social Security, and they inform us that there is no inflation and we don't need any increase. Aresto does a pretty good job of keeping us broke.

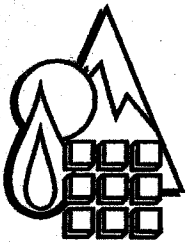

I would not object, to them getting a reasonable increase. I know a 10% raise would be more than welcome.

But I realize these greedy people would not be happy with that. I would go along with a 25% raise. I please think about us this time.
