Telephonic hearing will be July 7 on asset transfer agreement between Rocky Mountain Power and Idaho Falls

BOISE (June 29, 2020) - The Idaho Public Utilities Commission is hosting a telephonic hearing on July 7 to take public comment on an asset transfer agreement between the City of Idaho Falls and Rocky Mountain Power.

Under the proposed agreement, Idaho Falls would buy electric facilities from Rocky Mountain Power that the city needs to provide electric service to ten customers. Idaho Falls would also compensate Rocky Mountain Power for the lost revenue from the customers. Under a service allocation agreement, just compensation for lost revenues is the “amount equal to 167 percent of the total of the respective customers’ electric bills from the prior twelve-month period.”

The telephonic hearing will be held Tuesday, July 7, at 2:30 p.m. MDT. To participate, call 1-888-862-6557 shortly before the designated time, and enter the confirmation code 49789362 when prompted.

Those wishing to submit written comments on the asset transfer agreement must do so by Aug. 3, 2020. Comments must explain why a person supports or opposes the agreement.

Written comments must be sent to the following parties, preferably by e-mail:
